

Experience the FINESSE of FINNAIR

Whether you're flying Business or Economy, Finnair offers a level of comfort few airlines can match.

When you need to arrive fresh for that all-important business trip, Finnair's extra wide body, low-emission A350 long-haul fleet offers more restful privacy with full-flat seats that open onto the aisle.

And in Economy Class, wider seats and large panoramic windows enhance your enjoyment and excitement of the travel experience.

With Finnair, you can fly to over 100 destinations in Europe via Asia or America.

Choose from its main Asian gateways - Hong Kong, Singapore, Bangkok, Tokyo or Shanghai - or travel to Europe via the Americas; New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Miami and Santiago de Chile.

Discover for yourself why for the ninth consecutive year, Finnair has been named Northern Europe's Best Airline by Skytrax at the World Airline Awards.
