Escape to Western Australia. Spring and summer are glorious in the west ... imagine the long days you will have to explore the far west at your leisure.

Start your day with a coffee (or tea) and discover hidden art, laneways, secret gardens, and amazing cafes, and learn about the local history while exploring Perth. Then journey to Perth's very own island playground, Rottnest. Nestled behind the dunes of the iconic Pinky Beach, one of the most relaxed and breathtaking coastal locations in Australia, Discovery Rottnest Island is an eco-resort with a difference. Sleep (almost) under the stars in a luxury eco-tent, explore boardwalks through the sand dunes to Pinky's Beach Club and laze by the resort pool.

Not far south of Fremantle, stop and enjoy a boat ride through the canals and backwaters of Mandurah; you may be lucky to see the river dolphins. Drive further south along the coastline and stop to wander down Koombana Bay beach near Bunbury or wander down the famous jetty at Busselton.

Spend a few days at the delightful Pullman Bunker Bay Resort, nestled on the stunning, secluded north-facing beach of Bunker Bay in the world-renowned Margaret River Region. Located just three hours' drive south of Perth, this stunning resort is situated in a region of distinct natural beauty, bordering Cape Naturaliste National Park. Walk part of the Cape to Cape track. Explore the natural caves south of Margaret River township. Be tempted in the boutiques, craft shops and art galleries to bring something home. Enjoy a leisurely lunch in a winery and indulge your senses.

This special can be adapted to suit you – add a trip on the Indian Pacific or linger longer exploring. Call Travelling Places for details.
