Weather Guide

The Arabian Peninsula climate is sub-tropical with temperatures that vary from warm in the winter months to very hot in the summer. Rainfall is infrequent and sunny blue skies prevail throughout the year.

Temperature average:

Summer (Jun-Aug)	42°C	Autumn (Sep-Nov)	32°C
Winter (Dec-Feb)	23°C	Spring (Mar-May)	29°C

Language

Arabic is the official language of the United Arab Emirates, Qatar and Oman; however English is widely spoken in the major cities and tourist areas.

Electricity

United Arab Emirates	220V/50Hz
Qatar	240V/50Hz
Oman	220-240V/50Hz

A travel adaptor is recommended.

Ramadan

The holy month of Ramadan is the most spiritual period for Muslims and is dedicated to fasting, worship and spiritual reflection. Ramadan is observed throughout the Arabian Peninsula and we recommend you make yourself aware of how it may affect your travel. Daytime is often quieter, business hours are generally shorter with restaurants and cafés screened off or closed out of respect for those who are fasting. In the evening, cities come to life, public places will be busy well into the early hours of the morning.

Etiquette & Tipping

Visitors to the Arabian Peninsula need to be considerate of the local customs and traditions, especially when visiting Mosques or other significant religious sites. Tipping is appreciated but isn't compulsory. Most restaurants add a service charge to their bill, in which case a tip is unnecessary.

Tourism Fee

A Tourism Dirham charge applies to hotel guests, staying within the Emirate of Dubai, this fee is levied per occupied room night, per occupied bedroom and is not charged based on the number of guests staying in a room. This fee is not included in our costs and will be advised at time of booking.

A Tourism Fee of AED15 per room per night applies to all guests, staying in any hotel establishment, within the Emirate of Abu Dhabi.

Both fees are payable direct to the hotel and are collected upon check-in or check-out depending on the hotel process.

Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque

The Sultanate of Oman shimmers under a golden sun and lies between the Arabian Sea and the Gulf of Oman. Offering a refreshing reminder of a bygone era, Oman is one of the best places on the Peninsula to experience traditional Arabia. The spectacular landscapes and rich cultural traditions remain relatively unchanged from centuries past.

The capital, Muscat, is an enticing mix of old and new as enduring historic forts keep watch over the city centre. With few high-rise buildings, Muscat differs from neighbouring capitals. The city's building policy requires each building to reflect tradition with a dome or arabesque window resulting in a tidy and whimsical city.

Visit the breathtaking Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque with its beautiful crystal chandelier, the only mosque in Oman open to non-Muslims. See a world class performance at Muscat's Royal Opera House. The port district of Mutrah stretches along the attractive corniche and is the city's old commercial centre. No visit to Muscat is complete without a visit to Mutrah Souk. Practice your bartering skills in the absorbing labyrinth of narrow alleyways packed with colourful shops selling tubs of frankincense, silver and Bedu Jewellery.

The wild mountains and desert landscapes offer a wonderful range of activities for adventure lovers, from hiking and rock climbing to desert oasis tours. Oman is a leading diving destination with some of the region's most pristine underwater landscapes and marine life. From stunning mountain ranges to golden deserts and pristine coastlines, Oman's natural beauty combined with its people and traditions make it an obvious choice for those wanting modern Arabia with a link to the past.

Essential Experiences

Wander the streets of Mutrah. Seafaring vessels laden with gold, spices and silks came into port here under the guard of the 15th Century Jalali and Mirani forts.

Explore Jebel Shams, Oman's highest summit. Take in the views of Wadi Ghul, considered the Grand Canyon of Arabia.

Step into the past at Nizwa Fort. It is one of the country's oldest and most impressive garrisons.

Dine like a Sultan at Bait Du Luban. Located in Mutrah, the restaurant pays homage to traditional Omani food, with unique flavours and exotic spices.
